

Psychology Club Minutes

September 14, 2010

- Thank you to everyone that attended the volleyball game last Friday 9/10 it was a lot of fun.
- Dr. Browne talked about getting into graduate school at the doctoral level. He discussed looking for schools, where to choose and how many to choose, applying to those schools, recommendations, deadlines for applications and so forth.
 - Dr. Browne mentioned the “Kisses of Death” in applying to Grad School PowerPoint, located on the psych club page on the main Department of Psychology and Counseling webpage, which gives some really great suggestions of thing you should NOT do when applying to Grad School. Enjoy!
- Tuesday, September 21st, Dr. Cunningham will be coming to talk about school counseling. Make sure to bring lots of questions.
- The Mock GRE is still set for Friday, September 24th, 2p.m. All majors are welcome to attend. Location for where it will be administered will be determined upon how many people will be participating, so please sign up as soon as possible. Sign-up sheets will be located at the psychology building.
 - If you are not able to make it to the psychology building to sign-up just email me (nlricketts@valdosta.edu) and I will add your name to the list.
- Tuesday, September 28th, Dr. Hinkle will be coming to the meeting to discuss school psychology, so if you are interested please attend this meeting and brings lots of questions.

- Saturday, October 23rd, will be the day for the progressive dinner
- We are still accepting t-shirt ideas so if you have any goods one or not so good ones feel free to share we will be voting soon, so get your ideas in as soon as you can.

Any questions/suggestions do not hesitate to email the Psychology Club.

Have a great weekend & hope to see you next Tuesday!
